RESOBOX

Resobox BX8000 is an elegant box cassette designed for use on large area patios and decks.

Constructed into a unique modular box configuration, the fabric and folding arms are effectively protected from weather exposure when retracted and provide a clean architectural compliment to any home or business.

With an extraordinary width capability up to 45' and projections up to 13' with a continuous one piece fabric cover, areas of over 500 square feet can be shaded with the Resobox BX8000.

Automated motors and electronic comfort controls are available.
